

GLOBAL PRIORITISATION EXERCISE

Elrha's Global Prioritisation Exercise aims to amplify the transformative impact of humanitarian research and innovation – with the aim of ultimately improving outcomes for people affected by crises as well as to address fundamental gaps in knowledge about how humanitarian research and innovation operates. It'll map investments, ask community-led organisations and humanitarian workers what the priorities should be, highlight successes and support the creation of a more inclusive and coordinated approach.

Read more here: <https://www.elrha.org/global-prioritisation-exercise/>